

Council Bluffs Social Notes

A most enjoyable party was held by the sisterhood that has been formed by the Jewish women of Council Bluffs, on Sunday evening, in the Woodman hall in the Merriam block, with about seventy in attendance. A most excellent program was given and the evening spent in social enjoyment. Refreshments were served at a late hour by the women of the sisterhood. One of the features of the evening was the auctioning of the sofa pillow, that had been donated by the Jewish war relief fund. It was first won by Mr. M. Bernstein, who gave it back to the sisterhood to be auctioned off again for the war relief fund, and this time it was bid in for $15 by Mr. Steinberg. The total amount realized from the pillow was $47.75.

Miss Esther and Mr. Eloy Haduud entertained the members of the Beta Beta Literary society at a most interesting meeting at their home on Tuesday evening. The Birthdays of Lincoln and McKinley were celebrated and a most enjoyable program was given, including the following numbers: Essay on patriotism, Miss Elsie Sorenson; Life of William McKinley, Miss Laura Hanson; "William McKinley," Miss Elizabeth Lemaire; Song of Abraham Lincoln, Miss Esther Haduud.

Mr. George Kaiser gave a most interesting talk to the club, telling of the salmon industry, describing the process of catching and canning the big fish. Mr. Stuart Evans was elected a member of the society. During the social hour a fortune telling game furnished much amusement.

Miss Orpha Quinn has joined her mother, Mrs. E. A. Quinn, at Excelsior Springs, where she has been a guest at the Elms for the last ten days.

Mrs. I. N. Mlekinner's class in the First Presbyterian Sunday school held the regular business and social meeting Monday evening at the home Mrs. Theodore E. Grow. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Grow, Miss Wilson and Miss Judson.

Mrs. J. V. Mallory entertained the members of the University club at her home on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Sears gave a most enjoyable reading and Miss McGee gave a piano solo, which was greatly appreciated. Refreshments were served at a late hour and a most delightful social afternoon was spent by all. In addition to the active members of the club a number of the former members were guests. The regular meeting of the club will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. F. Arnold.

The young women of the Geneva club of the Young Women's Christian association have issued invitations for a party to be given Washington's birthday, which promises to be a very novel affair. The entertainment is a part of the jubilee program, which is being observed by all associations all over the world this month.

Members of the Oakland Avenue chapter of St. Paul's guild and a number of guests were entertained at a combined meeting and tea Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Huntington, who assisted in entertaining by Dr. Harriet Hamilton. More than thirty were present and the occasion proved to be a most enjoyable one. Out of deference to the guests the business session was omitted and the afternoon spent socially. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The chapter will hold another meeting and tea next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. R. Brackett on Vine street.

A most enjoyable Valentine kennington was given at the home of Mrs. J. L. Noy on Monday afternoon when Mrs. Noy, Mrs. G. W. Turner, Mrs. W. E. Millspaugh and Mrs. R. S. Palmer were the hostesses. The guests were the members of Circle No. 2 of the First Congregational church, and also a number of members from the other two circles. The house was most prettily decorated with hearts, cupid and other emblems suitable to the day. Luncheon was served by the hostesses followed by a short talk by Dr. J. T. Jones. The March meeting of the circle will be held at the home of Mrs. G. W. Turner on Oakland Drive.

A charming week-end affair was the annual party given on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. William Hall in honor of their eight wedding anniversary. The rooms were beautifully decorated in red and white. It being Lincoln's birthday, lovely drapes of red, white and blue were gracefully arranged over the doors and windows. From the shower in the dining room long ribbons of red and white were draped to the center of the table, on which a cut glass bowl of red and white carnations were placed. The hours were pleasantly spent with music and games. Miss Jessie Morris gave a number of piano selections. Several contests made a great deal of merriment. In the family record contest prizes were awarded to Mrs. C. C. Copeland and Mr. Fred Bishop; in the trip around the world, Mr. C. C. Copeland and Mrs. Henry Morris received the prizes. The guests presented the host and hostess with a number of lovely gifts. A dainty two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. Walter Shively and Miss Jessie Morris assisted in serving. Covers were placed for twenty.

Instead of the usual luncheon and kennington, the members of the Fortnightly club formed a matinee party Wednesday afternoon to see Daddy Longlegs at the Brandeis. Sixteen members were present. The club will be entertained March 1, at the home of Mr. C. M. Cochran in Omaha.

Miss Mollie Rice entertained the members of the Book Lovers' club on Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in reading and analyzing Thackeray's novel, "The Newcomes." Mrs. Drayton W. Bushnell gave the substance of the "Overture," told of the pedigree and family tree of the Newcomes, and of the early life and education of Colonel Newcome. Miss Rice told of Colonel Newcome, the man of Clive, the artist, and of Madame De Florac. Mrs. Thomas Metcalf read extracts from the book. The club will meet with Miss Rice again next Wednesday and will finish "The Newcomes," which also completes the outline on Thackeray. Charles Dickens is the next writer to be studied.

A new club to meet on alternate Wednesday evenings and play "500" was organized Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hayes on Houston avenue. The organization will be known as the D. D. club and has twelve members. Three tables of "500" were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Flor and Mr. Paul Jameson. Supper was served after the game. The club will meet on March 1 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bell.

The members of the L. T. club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Lockwood on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Quick and Mrs. Bowhan of Omaha, and Mrs. Weatherbe and Mrs. Gordy were the club guests. The afternoon was spent with sewing and visiting. The next meeting will be held March 1 at the home of Mrs. H. Johnson on Seventh avenue.

The R. E. M. club was pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. J. Barick. All but two of the members were present. Mrs. O. N. Fisk gave a piano solo and several clever readings by Miss Ruby

Cook were greatly enjoyed. In a bow and arrow contest, which furnished much amusement, the winners were Mrs. Test and Miss Cook. Luncheon was served by the hostess. The club will be entertained March 1 by Mrs. Frank Schley.

The University club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. F. Arnold. Mrs. Arnold led the history lesson on Brazil. Mrs. D. R. Witter, who took a trip to Washington not long ago, gave an interesting description of the Pan-American building. Following the program Mrs. J. M. Mathews on behalf of the club presented Mrs. Witter with a Rebekah spoon. The occasion was Mrs. Witter's birthday. The next regular meeting of the club will be held March 1 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Mallory.
